

Connemara and Galway Bay Train Tour

An enchanting day tour to the glorious West of Ireland where John Ford filmed 'The Quiet Man'. We arrive through Galway and see Kylemore Abbey and the Maam Valley and explore Connemara.

Check in Dublin Heuston Station (Customer Service Desk) for 07.30 departure of Intercity train to Galway (Light breakfast available, not included). On arrival in Galway we begin our tour by coach and strike out into the fabulous scenery of Connemara and into the region known as Connemara. Mountains, lakes and deep inlets are there to behold, we visit the lovely fishing village of Leenane on Ireland's only fjord. We visit the world famous Kylemore Abbey Visitor Centre and Victorian Garden (fee not included) which will be our lunch stop (not included). See Twelve Bens and Maamturks mountain ranges. There are plenty of shopping and photo opportunities en route. We continue on along the northern shores of Galway bay and arrive in Galway for our return Intercity train to Dublin Heuston Station arriving at 20.45 (snacks available, not included).

