

Korcula and Peljesac Tour - Deep in Dalmatian Wine Country

Visit the magical Peljesac Peninsula and Island of Korcula and get a taste of exceptional local cuisine and fine wines of the region!

Two destinations in the Dubrovnik County that spring to mind when one thinks of wine, are the Peljesac peninsular and the island of KorCula. The scenic peninsular of Peljesac stretches out like a green finger into the Adriatic Sea. Picturesque vineyards cling to rocky slopes dotted between the thick Mediterranean vegetation. Then just a short ferry ride brings you to an island steeped in history, an island with a walled city, the island of KorCula, the birthplace of Marco Polo and home to spectacular nature and architecture. A day trip to these jewels of the Croatia coastline will leave you awestruck at their natural beauty and spellbound with their historical roots, and will introduce you to the exceptional local cuisine and fine wines.
