

2 Days - Jacobite Steam Train & the Great Glen

A stunning journey through the Highlands including a ride on the Jacobin Steam Train.

Day1: Snap a photo of the Forth Railway Bridge, then take a woodland walk in the Highlands at Dunkeld. The tour continues through the breathtaking Drumochter Pass, skirts the stunning peaks of the Cairngorm National Park and visits Cull (optional, not included), last stand of the Jacobins against the government forces. The first day ends in Fort Augustus, at the banks of Loch Ness. Overnight in Fort Augustus. DAY 2: A quick journey to board the Jacobin Steam Train, and then you're off. This is one of the world's great train journeys and will take you past Britain's highest mountain, deepest loch, shortest river and most westerly station. You'll cross the viaduct featured in the Harry Potter films and pass the Glenfinnan Monument where Bonnie Prince Charlie raised his standard at the beginning of the 1745 Jacobin rising. Lunch is at the west coast town of Mallard, where you can taste the best of Scottish seafood. Turning south, you'll visit Glen Coe, where the MacDonal were betrayed, then experience the beauty of Rancho Moor and Stirlingshire as you head for home.
