

Chaplin, Montreux

Discover wonderful views of Switzerland, the Alps Mountains and Geneva Lake.

Ride our comfortable coach from Geneva, drive through the Vaud countryside, you will have a photo stop to see the highlight of Lausanne, the Olympic committee which was created by the Baron Pierre de Coubertin in 1896. Then continue to Corsier-sur-Vevey, spend free time in the village around Chaplin's world. Next, jump on our open trolley tour through the World heritage site of Lavaux, protected by UNESCO, also called "the Wine road": a vineyard region with terraces. You will have a break in the middle of the vines to taste some local products such as cheese, wine or grape juice. Just before lunch, take an overall of Vevey city, Nestle headquarters, the covered market and spend a free time for your lunch. In the afternoon, board again our open trolley, drive along the lake road, from Vevey to the castle of Chillon, places called "the pearls of the lake". Blessed with an extremely mild micro-climate, Montreux-Vevey features a several-mile promenade with beautiful arrays of palm trees and tropical flowers. You will arrive to the Castle of Chillon to take some pictures. Your last stop will be in Montreux, a glamorous tourist resort. Feel the atmosphere of all the great artists who have visited this place such as Aretha Franklin, Ella Fitzgerald, BB King, Ray Charles and many more. The emblem of the city is the statue of Freddy Mercury; he says that "If you want Peace of Soul, you should come to Montreux". This artist, who lived several years in Montreux recorded his last album with the group Queen, "Made in Heaven", in the Mountain Studio, which is in the Montreux Casino. You will have the chance to visit Queen's old studio record. Wander in the streets full of fancy shopping and landmarks of the famous jazz festival. Ride the bus back to Geneva.
