

4 Days - London to Dublin Package

Travel to Ireland the classic route by rail through the heart of England, along the lovely North Wales Coast then on the world's largest cruise ferry to Dublin City Centre - Spend three nights in Dublin City Centre and return to London.

The trip commences at London Euston station, where you will be met by your Railtours Ireland host at the Virgin Train Station Reception and escorted into your reserved seats on your direct express train bound for Holyhead in Wales. Your train, complete with onboard toilets and a shop will speed through the beautiful countryside of England and Wales to reach Holyhead in just 3 hours and 40 minutes. Upon arrival into Holyhead's port station you will immediately board the Ulysses cruise ferry for an invigorating 3 hours and 15 minute voyage across the Irish Sea to Dublin. Facilities on board ship include a range of restaurants and bars, a 2-screen cinema and a traditional promenade deck, from where you can enjoy the fresh sea air. The ship arrives into Dublin Port in the late afternoon and you will be transferred directly to your four star standard hotel in Dublin City Center. The evening and the next day are yours to enjoy! On day two, feel free to discover Dublin with your Hop On Hop Off Bus Ticket. The popular tour is offered with both live and multilingual commentary. Day three is open to discover Dublin with your Hop On Hop Off Bus Ticket. On day four, at the end of a memorable visit to Ireland, you will be transferred by taxi to Dublin Port and 7:00am for an 8:05am ferry departure to Holyhead where your train will be waiting to transport you through Wales and back to London.

