

2 days in Loire Valley

Take advantage of a two-day tour to discover the finest Chateaux of the Loire Valley, an area of major importance to the history of France. Afterwards, enjoy the chance to visit private homes and royal residences of the Renaissance, revealing the gentle pleasures of life.

Your first day will be devoted to the Chateau d'Amboise, the Chateau du Clos-Luce, the gardens of Villandry and the city of Tours. You will leave our agency, located near the Louvre, at 7:15 am on an air-conditioned coach accompanied by our qualified guide-interpreter. Take a guided tour of the Chateau d'Amboise, a UNESCO world heritage site. Free time for lunch (Not included). Meet up with your guide to head to the Chateau du Clos-Luce. Discover the residence of Leonardo da Vinci thanks to a guided tour. In the company of your guide, discover the magnificent avenues of linden trees of Villandry Castle. Next, you will continue to Tours and participate in a guided tour of the old city: discover the charm of this historic neighborhood lined with enchanting half-timbered houses. The day will end at a hotel in Tours (Hotel Mercure Tours Nord or similar) for a dinner with the group and overnight accommodation. The second day of the tour will be dedicated to visits of the castles of Chenonceau, Cheverny and Chambord. After breakfast, you will head to the Chateau de Chenonceau. The following stop will be Cheverny. Lunch at the Saint Hubert restaurant in Cour-Cheverny (drinks not included). You will then head to the Chateau de Chambord. The large terrace with its majestic chimneys offers a unique panoramic view of Chambord Park. You will leave Chambord at around 4:30 pm, reaching our agency in Paris at around 7 pm.

