

Flavors of Oporto - Cruise, Wine Tasting and Fado Show

The Douro River, the Port wine and Fado are the protagonists of this journey that will allow you to feel closer to Porto's identity. Come enjoy this tour with an outstanding cruise, followed by a Calem's lodge visit with Port wine tasting. At the end of the day immerse into the Portuguese soul, with a Fado show where the voices are delightfully guided by Portuguese guitars.

Cruise trip and wine tasting with Fado concert in Porto. Your journey begins with a small cruise on the Douro at Cais da Ribeira on the Douro waterfront in the historic center of Porto. Portuguese and tourists sit in the many restaurants and snack bars overlooking the Douro and Vila Nova da Gaia, the city on the opposite bank, where the famous Port wine cellars are. Your journey is followed through a visit of the famous Calem winery. The tour lasts about half an hour and you get an interesting insight into the history of the company and learn a lot about port wine. At the end of course you'll enjoy a well-deserved wine tasting. As the Calem winery starts, you will enjoy the Fado concert, featuring music full of melancholy and longing, accompanied by Portuguese guitars.
