

Trastevere & the Jewish Ghetto

Take a break from the crowds and explore the real Rome, the backstreets of the historic centre.

Join this tour on a leisurely stroll through the Jewish Ghetto and Trastevere area, starting from Largo Argentina and the Senate House where Julius Caesar was murdered, finishing at Campo de' Fiori, once the site of the executions during the Inquisition, one of today's most lively piazzas. On this tour, you will get a chance to see the hidden ancient city below the modern street level, and as Rome was not built in a day, a little bit of every time period in between, from Medieval to Renaissance to Baroque.
