

Full Day Capri and Anacapri

Designer boutiques, chic cafes, dramatic scenery, it must be Capri! No visit to Campania region would be complete without sailing across the Bay of Naples to this beautiful island.

Designer boutiques, chic cafes, dramatic scenery, it must be Capri. You probably decided you wanted to go before you even got here, and indeed you are right as no visit to Campania region would be complete without sailing across the Bay of Naples to this beautiful isle. It has captured the heart of many a visitor who have sung, written, painted and talked about this enchanting spot. Whilst visiting Capri and Anacapri, enjoy an optional visit to the fabulous villa of Dr Axel Munthe whose best selling book Story of San Michele tells of his time on Capri; or decide to take the chair lift to the top of Mount Solaro a unique and hair raising experience (payable locally). You'll also have your chance to explore Capri Town with its winding streets, many cafes and the lovely Piazza Umberto and the colourful gardens of Augustus overlooking the famed Faraglioni Rocks. There's just enough free time to visit the elegant shops, stroll along the cobbled streets or simply relax.

